

2023 Best Company to Work For

SEPTEMBER 7, 2023

We are proud to announce that Sanborn Head has been named as one of the 2023 Best Companies to Work For by Business NH Magazine. We are thrilled to have placed #19 among the 25 other outstanding companies on the list.

The Best Companies to Work For competition attracted applicants from across the state from a variety of industry sectors. Each company completed an extensive employer survey, detailing benefits and workplace practices. Employees from each company also filled out an employee engagement survey. The results of all those assessments determined the winning companies.

This recognition is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our team members who have helped create a positive and supportive work environment at Sanborn Head. We are committed to continuing to foster a culture of excellence and look forward to the opportunities that lie ahead.
